EDITOR'S NOTE

Spooky season is finally here! Let's be honest with each other, October is one of the best months of the year. The weather is finally cooling off, you can start putting pumpkin in everything without being judged, and candy magically becomes a food group. Not to mention the fun of Halloween and getting to play dress up and look like any character, monster, or anything your heart desires, no matter your age!

This month, we're leaning all the way into the season, with our Bowling event on page 12 (yes, that is Halloween-themed bowling, and yes, it will be as fun as it sounds!). If you're anything like me and your vibe is more sipping than striking, then Wine Night might be calling not just my name, but yours, too! On page 9, you can find all the details for a night filled with a collection of wine, bubbly, and hors d'oeuvres, which makes for a cozy, grown-up kind of magic. And of course, it wouldn't be October without a themed drink. Page 20 introduces the Spiderbite 'Rita, and if that name doesn't give you the heebie jeebies, then I don't know what will!

So, go put on your costume, grab a glass, and get ready to make some spooky memories. We've got plenty to look forward to this month, and I hope you find something in these pages that makes you laugh, connect, or just feel more at home.

HAUNTED HOUSE

FRI-SAT • 24-25 OCT • 5-9 P.M.
TAIYO COMMUNITY CENTER

Enter Yokota's scariest Halloween hangout—if you dare. There will be zombies, street performers, and terror around every turn.

The Origins of Halloween:

FROM ANCIENT RITUAL TO

alloween originated with the Celtic festival of Samhain (pronounced SAH-WIN), held over 2,000 years ago in the regions of present-day Ireland, the United Kingdom, and northern France. It marked the close of the harvest and the beginning of winter. Celts believed that on this night, the boundary between the living and the spirit world blurred, allowing spirits to cross over. People lit bonfires and wore disguises made from animal skins for protection.

As Christianity expanded, the church adapted older customs. In the 8th century, Pope Gregory III established 1 November as All Saints' Day, also called All Hallows' Day, to honor saints. The evening before was All Hallows' Eve, later shortened to Halloween. Practices from Samhain blended with Christian traditions, resulting in a hybrid of sacred observance and community activity, although the holiday is not always seen as religious itself.

During the Middle Ages, the poor visited homes and offered prayers for the dead in return for food, a practice known as "Souling." Children later adapted this into "guising," dressing in costumes and performing small tasks for treats. These customs traveled with immigrants to North America, leading to the "Trick-or-Treat" tradition we know today.

Halloween in colonial America was initially limited due to strict Protestant beliefs; however, as more Irish and Scottish immigrants came to the U.S., the holiday was popularized. By the late 1800s, Halloween in the U.S. became a social gathering and family event.

Today, Halloween is celebrated widely, particularly in the United States, where it has developed into a cultural and communal event. Costumes, candy sales, haunted houses, and themed entertainment dominate the season. Despite these modern forms, Halloween still carries echoes of its ancient origins in rituals of imagination, transition, and community gathering.

Speaking of haunted houses... this year, come to Yokota's favorite Halloween event, the Taiyo Community Center's Haunted House. Fun for all ages, this event promises to deliver that spooky and cold feeling on All Hallows' Eve, which we know you are dying for!
